Packing tips for smooth sailing ~ pun intended ~

What to pack in carryon luggage

- All items marked with * above in carryon (documents, money, cameras/electronics, sunscreen, swimsuits, medications, sunglasses and diaper bag)
- Make it even easier: Wear swimsuits under clothes for embarkation.

When in doubt, leave it out

- Items marked with  can (and will) be worn other times.
- Women can wear the same dress for both formal nights, just change accessories.
- Women can wear the same pants/skirt a couple of evenings and change tops to keep packing light.
- Men can wear a casual shirt (polo) to dinner one night and on shore excursions another day.
- There's always an onboard laundry service if needed.

Packing for kids

- Make comfort your priority! Comfortable kids are happy kids.
- Flip flops can be tough when the ship rocks or they get wet. For safety, pack sandals instead.
- A favorite toy or blanket makes bedtime better.

Personalize the packing list!

Cross off all items in the list that you know you DO NOT need, then pack! Use the space below for notes -- extras not included above, things to buy, and anything special you need for shore excursions.

From all of us at Family Travels on a Budget, have a great cruise!
